

Implementing and scaling sustainable clinical pharmacy practice – Poland 2024

Day One Monday 21st October Morning Session

Time	Session	Speaker(s)
08:30-9:30	Registration, Welcome, Coffee and Tea
09:30-10:00	Opening Ceremony – Welcome and Introduction	Dr Monika Lutters ESCP President & Chair of Scientific Committee
10:00-10:30	Plenary I – Implementing innovative clinical pharmacy services across a health system -A policy perspective	Professor Cathy Harrison Chief Pharmaceutical Officer Department of Health Stormont, Belfast
10:30-11:00	Coffee Break and Poster Viewing
11:00-11:30	Plenary II – Treat the person, save the planet- iSIMPATY approach	Dr Alpana Mair FFRPS, IP, MRPharmS, PhD Head of Effective Prescribing and Therapeutics Division, Scottish Government Associate Professor, Edinburgh Napier University Scottish Quality, Safety & Improvement Fellow, Senior Clinical Fellow University of Edinburgh, EU Project coordinator for SIMPATY & iSIMPATY and EIP AHA A1: Prescribing
11:30-12:00	Plenary III – The Power of Patient and Public Involvement in Education, Research and Service Development	Professor Judith Strawbridge School of Pharmacy and Biomolecular Sciences Dublin, Ireland
12:00-12:30	Plenary IV – Artificial Intelligence and Clinical Pharmacy: from concept to care	Dr Ignacio Medrano Neurologist Hospital Ramón y Cajal Madrid, Spain
12:30-13:30	Lunch and Poster Viewing

Implementing and scaling sustainable clinical pharmacy practice – Poland 2024

Day One Monday 21st October Afternoon Session

Time	Session
13:30-15:30	Parallel Session I- Workshops, Oral Communications
15:30-16:00	Coffee Break and Poster Viewing
16:00-18:00	Parallel Session II- Workshops, Oral Communications

Implementing and scaling sustainable clinical pharmacy practice – Poland 2024

Day Two Tuesday 22nd October Morning Session

Time	Session	Speaker
09:15-09:45	Plenary V – Therapeutic advances in cardiovascular disease	Professor Piotr Ponikowski MD, PhD Wroclaw Medical University Wroclaw, Poland
09:45-10:15	Plenary VI – Practice research-led evolvments in pharmacy services for cardiovascular disease	Dr Francesca Wirth B.Pharm, M.Phil, Ph.D Department of Pharmacy Faculty of Medicine and Surgery University of Malta, Msida, Malta
10:15-10:45	Plenary VII – Development and implementation of a Pharmacist-led pharmacogenetic service in different settings	Professor Samuel Allemann Pharmaceutical Services Department University of Basel, Pharmaceutical Care Basel, Switzerland  Dr. Markus Leopold Lampert Pharmaceutical Services Department University of Basel, Pharmaceutical Care Basel, Switzerland
10:45-11:15	Coffee Break and Poster Viewing
11:15-11:45	Plenary VIII - Title Evidencing novel clinical pharmacy practices across a health system	Professor Michael Scott and Mrs Anita Hogg Medicines Optimisation Innovation Centre Antrim Area Hospital, Antrim, Northern Ireland
11:45-12:30	Steve Hudson Lecture - Title TBC (Communities of Practice and research and development)	Professor Bart van den Bemt UMC St Radboud Netherlands
12:30-13:30	Lunch and Poster Viewing

Implementing and scaling sustainable clinical pharmacy practice – Poland 2024

Day Two Tuesday 22nd October Afternoon Session

Time	Session
13:30-15:30	Parallel Session III- Workshops, Oral Communications
15:30-16:00	Coffee Break and Poster Viewing
16:00-18:00	Parallel Session IV- Workshops, Oral Communications
18:30-20:00	General Assembly (ESCP Members Only)
20:30	ESCP SYMPOSIUM DINNER

Implementing and scaling sustainable clinical pharmacy practice – Poland 2024

Day Three Wednesday 23rd October Morning Session

Time	Session	Speaker
09:15-09:45	Plenary IX - Point-of-Care Testing: Primary Care's Holy Grail or Fool's Gold?	Prof Dr Jan Verbakel Associate Professor of Primary Care & General Practitioner 1. Department of Public Health and Primary Care, KU Leuven (BE) 2. Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences, University of Oxford (UK)
09:45-10:15	Plenary X – Therapeutic advances in respiratory medicine	Prof. Joanna Chorostowska-Wynimko Vice President of the European Respiratory Society 2023-2024 Past Secretary General of the European Respiratory Society 2019-2022 Head of Department of Genetics and Clinical Immunology National Institute of Tuberculosis and Lung Diseases Warsaw, Poland
10:15-10:45	Plenary XI - Optimizing antimicrobial use to prevent resistance in Europe: the role of pharmacists in implementing Antimicrobial Stewardship	Dr Marina Odalović Department of social pharmacy and pharmaceutical legislation Centre for pharmacy practice development-Serbia.
10:45-11:15	Coffee Break and Poster Viewing
11:15-11:45	Plenary XII - The dilemma of delirium and dementia care: clinical pharmacy as the missing piece of the puzzle	Professor Anita Weidmann, MRPharmS, MFRPSII, SFHEA, PhD Clinical Pharmacy Faculty for Chemistry and Pharmacy University of Innsbruck, Austria
11:45-12:15	Plenary XIII - Title TBC (Nursing Homes, scaling and spreading across multiple countries)	Assoc. Prof. Daniela Fialová Chair of the University Educational Centre in Clinical Pharmacy EUROAGEISM Horizon 2020 project- ESR7 and Inomed WG4 project Faculty of Pharmacy, Charles University, Czech Republic, Department of Social and Clinical Pharmacy and Department of Geriatrics and Gerontology, 1st Faculty of Medicine, Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic
12:30-13:30	Lunch and Poster Viewing

Implementing and scaling sustainable clinical pharmacy practice – Poland 2024

Day Three Wednesday 23rd October Afternoon Session

Time	Session
13:30-15:30	Parallel Session V- Workshops, Oral Communications
15:30-16:00	Closing Ceremony & ESCP Awards
16.00-17.00	FAREWELL DRINK